

Pamela Rendsland Tonello

Chief Program Officer

As CPO, Pamela manages all programs and services including Jobs Funnel, One-Stop, Youth, sector-based partnerships, and employer engagement. She also facilitates the building of systems of service for the American Job Center (AJC) and youth program customers. Pamela oversees the Special Programs, Employer Engagement, One Stop Services, and Youth Services divisions.

Pamela joined Capital Workforce Partners in 2010 and has served as Director of Special Programs since 2012 overseeing CWP's industry sector initiatives in healthcare, manufacturing and construction including the Jobs Funnel, and other programs and federal grants including H-1B Ready to Work and YouthBuild.

Pamela has over 15 years of experience in designing and managing workforce development initiatives and prior to moving to New England served as Special Projects Director at Workforce Central Florida and as Resource Development Manager at Seminole State College.

Pamela is a graduate of University of Florida with a major in Journalism and Communications and a minor in English. Pamela currently serves on the Board of Directors for the National Association of Workforce Development Professionals, representing the Northeast Region.

Pamela resides in Hartford CT with her husband Dave, son Jack and dog Sam. Pamela enjoys traveling with her family.