

Wendy Gamba

Wendy Gamba is the Chief Financial and Administrative Officer at Capital Workforce Partners whose mission is to leverage public and private resources to produce skilled workers for a competitive regional economy in 37 municipalities in North Central Connecticut. Capital Workforce Partners serves about a million individuals through four American Jobs Centers with a $22 million annual budget.

Wendy joined Capital Workforce Partners in 2015 as Chief Financial Officer and is responsible for the administration functions of Capital Workforce Partners including Finance, IT and Human Resources. She serves as the senior staff person supporting the Finance and Audit committee of the Board and plays a key role in the execution of the organizational strategic plan.

Prior to joining Capital Workforce Partners, Wendy was the Controller for the New Opportunities Inc., (NOI). NOI is the 2nd largest community action agency in the state that serves Waterbury, Meriden, Torrington and 27 surrounding towns which administers a vast array of social service programs intended to move individuals and families out of poverty and into self-sufficiency.

Prior to joining the nonprofit sector, Wendy held financial positions in the private sector, security alarm industry handling mergers, acquisitions and commercial lending. Wendy has extensive experience in financial management including internal control systems, compliance, and financial reporting.

Wendy is a graduate of Bryant College with dual majors in accounting and business management.
