North Central Connecticut
Regional Profile for July 1, 2018 – June 30, 2019

Capital Workforce Partners (CWP) is the regional workforce development board for North Central Connecticut. CWP helps individuals overcome barriers to employment and closes the gap between skills and business hiring needs. This town profile summarizes services provided to residents and businesses for the 2018/2019 fiscal year.

18,117 individuals served and $18,435,124 invested

CWP oversees the operation of four American Job Centers (AJC) and one satellite in the region, in partnership with the Connecticut Department of Labor and other state agencies. These centers provide job seekers with a full array of career services, including self-directed career services, career guidance, workshops, job development, online training, and individual training scholarships. Additional programs are offered both within the AJCs and through contracted providers. Programs and the number of individuals served are listed below.

American Job Centers
- Self-directed career services (Wagner-Peyser) 12,477

Adult Services
Total Served: 5,336
CWP develops sustainable career paths for adult workers (ages 18 and older) through a variety of programs both in the AJC and at contracted providers.
- Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act Adult and Dislocated Workers (includes National Dislocated Worker Grant and Free to Succeed Ex-Offender Retention) 1,911
- Jobs First Employment Services (Temporary Family Assistance recipients) 2,943
- Best Chance (Second Chance Integrated Basic Education Skills Training) 177
- Jobs Funnel 67
- REACH (Re-Employment Alliance for Careers in Health) 347

Youth Services
Total Served: 1,767
CWP invests in youth development (ages 14 to 24) through career development, occupational skills training and work experiences.
- Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act Youth 452
- YouthBuild New Britain 29
- Summer Youth Employment 1,196
- Hartford Student Internship Plan 164

Business Services
Total Served: 1,887
CWP assists employers by connecting them to skilled workers and providing workforce development resources such as hiring subsidies and on-the-job training.