The Economic Value of Capital Workforce Partners

REFLECTS PROGRAM YEAR 2018

$12.4 Million
of Capital Workforce Partners funding received in PY 2018 tied directly to programs analyzed

$7.5 million from Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) funding

$4.9 million from non-WIOA competitive grants.

Connecticut taxpayers will see a benefit of $1.53 in increased state tax revenues and public sector savings.

Reached a high of $4.75 for Re-Employment Alliance for Careers in Health (REACH).

Over 2,800 participants served
$12.47 - $31.25 Average wage at exit
61% increase in employment rate after exiting
$49.7 million in participant higher annual earnings

2018 participants will add $18.9 million in additional tax revenues and public sector savings for Connecticut over the next 10 years

This analysis shows that in Program Year 2018, the day-to-day operations spending of Capital Workforce Partners generated over $12 million in added income to the Hartford County economy.

This is equivalent to supporting approximately 139 jobs.

Powered by Emsi Data

Click here to view the full Economic Value Report.